

Jack is running late to his 8:30 at Darla Moore and needs to get to class ASAP. He gets there and he can't find a single parking spot. He searches for minutes, and finally finds one. But it's too late. Jack is 20 minutes late to class

One day in class, Jack sees an ad for the Campus Parking app! He's delighted to see it works on his campus!

Jack is starting to struggle in class since he can't get there on time. His grades are falling and his teachers are getting concerned

Jack is now able to find open parking spots and reserve them! He has no trouble getting to class and his grades are improving. He's no longer depressed and his girlfriend loves him again. He knows when and where he can park and now doesn't have to worry about parking woes ever again!

Ben is currently running late for his opening shift at Russell, and has spent over a half hour driving around searching for a parking spot. His boss doesn't like that he has been coming in late, and Ben has already racked up many expensive tickets.

The first day Ben uses the app, he is able to reserve a spot and get to work on time. He snaps this picture first, because he feels good in it and also changed appearances entirely due to less stress.

One day while Ben is yelling at a group of students blocking the crosswalk, he finds an ad for the Campus Parking App while playing a trashy mobile game with 1000 ads. Trying to hit the x, Ben misses it and gets dragged to the App Store. He actually read the app description and decided to try it out, since he was late yet again.

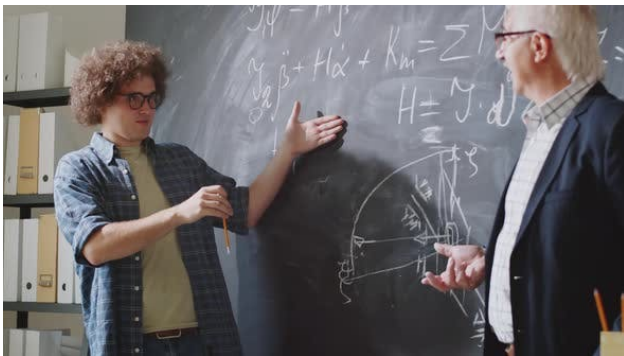

Ben is now able to get to work on time daily and reserve parking spots as he drives to them. He is never late, and has earned many promotions for his astounding work ethic. Ben was able to save up enough money to buy a brand new Little Tike, and has decided not to run over pedestrians to get a parking space.

Dawson has a very busy schedule, this is mostly due to him not being able to manage his time efficiently. Not only does he struggle with his time management skills but he also has the worst luck with finding a parking spot. Dawson is now late to teach his 12:33 PM classes.

Due to his inconsistency of showing up on time, his students start to gossip and then eventually only few bother to show up to class. This pushes Dawson to resort to alcohol. Where he is now left feeling even more miserable. If only there was something to help him find a parking space that somewhat helps with his terrible management skills...

Miracles do happen! Dawson walks into class only to find Napoleon at the front of the classroom doing some big brain thinking. Napoleon tells his professor the secret of being assured a parking space. He shows him the app that he downloaded on his phone.

Now that Dawson knows the secret, he has been able to keep a record of seven days of arriving right on time. Thanks to the parking app his students finally respect him. He is as happy as a clam and is attending his first AA meeting for the first time in his life.

Josh has a very tight class schedule everyday. Due to this he does not get enough time to complete his homework during day time. This results in waking up till late night and finishing the work.

Due to not having enough sleep it is so hard for him to wake up early the next day. Addition to this he never gets parking on time. This brings him to reach to class late.

Through one of his friend he heard about the campus parking app. He was already going through a lot so decided to deal with one of the problem and downloaded the campus parking app.

The very next day after downloading the app it was so easy to find the parking space on time. And finally after so many days of being late he actually felt the happiness of going to class on time.
